Dear Mr. Doe:

It has come to our attention that you recently have been charged with a drug or alcohol offense and that you may be in need of our services. QLC has been helping people just like you for over 20 years. From individual or group therapy to court mandated assessments, QLC can provide you with the services that you need and help you get your life back on track.

QLC is a fully licensed and accredited facility authorized to offer counseling services including alcohol and drug assessments, educational programs, and customized addiction recovery and dependency treatment systems. All of our counselors are fully licensed and specialize in the care of drug and alcohol assessment and rehabilitation.

Our services are available to you in a professional and comfortable environment where your privacy and ultimate wellness are our top priorities. We are available to serve your needs during days, in the evenings, and on weekends to accommodate your schedule. Your initial assessment and consultation can be scheduled within 24 hours of your call to help you meet any court mandated time constraints.

Our rates are highly competitive and we offer payment plans for those in financial need. Please call us today to find out more about what QLC can offer you. We want to help you with any problems you may be experiencing.

Sincerely,

The Staff of QLC Counseling Services
